Report on the digitised papers

This winter the archive scanned the letters and lecture notes of three collections.

Each page was photographed twice, and the better copy was kept.