Oppenheimer and the Bhagavad Gita

Lecture notes. J. Robert Oppenheimer learned Sanskrit in the 1930s to read the Bhagavad Gita in the original.

The poem is a dialogue between the prince Arjuna and Krishna, his charioteer, on the eve of a battle.